Program

Pres. Kimberli introduced Memorial High School's varsity basketball coaches. Kelly Fulmer is the varsity girls coach. Her team won their first game and is looking forward to a tough schedule. Her seniors came through in the win, and she has a good freshman class that will be a factor in the future. She said that the new facilities have allowed much more practice time with multiple courts and new technology.

Pres. Kimberli then introduced Dan Hegemeier, the varsity boys coach. He also commented on what a joy it is to practice in the new gym. They ended the season last year at 7-14 and got better as the year progressed.

The team had a good summer camp but still need to spend time in the weight room. He said that the WBL is a tough league with no particular favorite this year. The team needs to take good shots and he believes that with his point guard now a sophomore it should cut down on turnovers. The coach went over the members of the team and their respective roles. They have 14 players on the JV squad and 11 freshmen this year. He has good, young kids on the way up in the program.
