“Pass The Hat” Tradition

Craig Noble passed “The Hat” around to all Rotary members for donations to be collected for Good Fellows. This tradition was started by his father Ed Noble who used Dick Neely’s hat to pass around.

Program

Let The Fun Begin!

Mark Ashman started the Christmas festivities by drawing a few door prize tickets out. Then, the Gift Exchange began! So many wonderful gifts were OPENED! So many wonderful gifts were STOLEN! There were a few liquid items in particular that were passed from several different hands! I’m sure you can guess which ones!! Several will be enjoying “Happy Hour”.

This box of chocolates opened by Robbie Burke, brought a gasp from everyone!

Now that’s A LOT of CHOCOLATE!

All the banter back and forth was fun to listen to!
Everyone had a great time!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
See you in 2015!

Queen of Hearts

Guess who found the Queen of Hearts?

Our very own Ellen Hunter drew the “long sought after” Queen of Hearts!
