Program

Today was our club's annual Yankee Swap gift exchange. Rita Hilty introduced the rules and Jami was the keeper of the records. Robbie Burke was the first to pick.

Robbie drew a gift from the table, and each subsequent number was able to steal or pick a gift from the table.

Julie Kraner and Jeff Vossler seemed to get stolen from the most. Once a gift was stolen three times it was done and could not be stolen again. Jeff did not steal his gifts strategically....

As it tradition, there was much liquid cheer that was being exchanged. There was also chocolate, gift cards and other thoughtful and useful gifts. It seemed that the liquid cheer was most often stolen though...

Merry Christmas to all!!

Queen of Hearts

Kraig Noble's ticket was drawn, but he did not find the Queen.
