Our club held its first conference call meeting. President Travis Elsass emailed the members ahead of time for questions for our Representative Jim Jordan.

During the conference call Travis asked Jim about help for small businesses during the re-opening phase of the pandemic. Jim discussed the shut downs and warned of certain state governors who might use the pandemic crisis as a way to fund prior state budget shortfalls.

Jim supports liability protection legislation for re-opening businesses. He believes that since the government forced the closures that there should be government support for the businesses, starting with the CARES act. Once the economy is back up and running they will
